Mr. Henri Teminanka,

Philadelphia, Penna.

Dear Sir:-

Of the two compositions by Carel Blitz submitted to us, we are considerably interested in "Boston". The other, the Strauss arrangement, does not interest us and I have given instructions to return the manuscript to you by mail.

As for "Boston", we are interested only for orchestral purposes and do not care to publish the piece in any other form, but, when publishing it for orchestra, we should print the words along with the music. Our terms would be a total royalty of 5% on the listed price, such royalty to be shared by the composer with you, if that is your agreement. The title as you have it smacks too much of "popular" songs in which we do not specialize. We should want to call the piece simply "Bostonette."

Awaiting your decision, I am

Very truly yours,
